12. SWIMMING IN THE OCEAN IS DANGEROUS: Due to the lack of control over all types of craft that operate on the ocean, including powered, sailing and manpowered craft, as well as the unknown behaviours of sea creatures, including dolphins, sharks, stingrays, stone-fish, sea snakes, sea-urchins, marine stingers and jelly-fish. All entrants in the 2016 Jupiter's Pan Pacific Ocean Swim events will participate at their own risk and will accept and acknowledge the extent of the dangers inherent in Open Ocean swimming races.

13. SHARK SIGHTINGS: In the event a shark is sighted before the event, no one will be allowed in water for 1hr after last sighting and it is confirmed by the Surf Life Saving Queensland it is safe to do so.

14. All water safety personnel will be equipped with a whistle. If shark sighted during event all water safety to alert swimmers with continuous blows of their whistle and shark alarm will be used. All swimmers to be moved out of the water as safely as possible. Event will be cancelled.

15. Swimming in the ocean is physically and psychologically demanding. Each competitor will attest to be competent long distance swimmers in the ocean and have no current or recurrent illnesses or injuries that may interfere with your ability to safely navigate the open ocean swimming course established by the organisers.

16. If you are deemed to have difficulty swimming the course you may be asked to discontinue the event and will be assisted from the water. We will only do this if we believe your safety is at risk.

17. All decisions of the Race Director are final.

18. PROTESTS: must be made in writing with a consideration fee of $20 and given to the Race Director or received and receipted at registration within 15 minutes of the announcement of the provisional results. Forms will be available from administration table.

19. All decisions of the Race Director are final.

20. Any decision to cancel the event will be determined by event organisers no less than 1hour prior to commencement of the first scheduled event.

21. REFUNDS POLICY: I hereby agree that if I do not participate in the events for any reason, or if the events are cancelled due to a storm, rain, inclement weather, winds or other Act of God conditions or safety concerns my entry fee shall be non-refundable.
